We are pleased to announce that 'Llangewydd Junior School' is part of the Tiny Forest initiative. Eco Club have met with Rachel and Claire from 'Valleys to Coast' and during our sessions we have helped to design the area.

Two 'Tiny Forests' are to be planted on the green situated on Heol Y Frenhines on the 13th and 14th November and the whole school will take part during each morning with the local community taking part in planting during the afternoon.

A 'Tiny Forest' can have a significant impact.

With one in six species under threat of extinction in Wales, creating new habitats in urban areas has never been more important.

We are following a special method of planting that is proven to grow ten times faster, 30 times denser and is 100% more biodiverse than a standard, newly planted woodland. We want to attract wildlife, improve air quality, remove harmful greenhouse gases from the atmosphere and help reduce localised flooding.

All the pupils at our school will have the chance to learn about local flora and fauna in new outdoor classrooms.

Please let us know if you do not want your child to take part.
